TRANSPORTATION.

FOR WASHINGTON CITY, Baltimore, Philadelphia, NEW YORK, &C.

Most direct through Line for the East.

BALTIMORE & OHIO

RAILROAD!

THIS GREAT WORK OF INTERnal improvement (379 miles from Wheeling to Baltimore, and 408 to Washington,) was opened to the Ohio river in January, 1853, and has now been fully tested and approved, both as a freight and passenger route. This road is located in a romantic country, is solidly constructed, fully equipped, and carefully managed, and is thus rendered as attractive as well as a safe line for travelers. The late completion of the Central Ohio Road, from Columbus to the Ohio river, near Wheeling, adds greatly to the importance of this route, offering, as it does, the most thorough Railroad connection with the entire West.

☞ THE ONLY THROUGH TICKETS BETWEEN LOUISVILLE AND THE NATIONAL METROPOLIS are sold by this road, which runs direct to Washington without the delay of passing through Baltimore. It is also the only line by which baggage can be checked to Washington from the West. At Baltimore the road makes a direct connection with the Railroad to Philadelphia and New York, &c.

Passengers going East from Louisville, may proceed by steamboat to Cincinnati, and there take the Railroad to connect with this line, or may leave Louisville by the Jeffersonville Railroad direct.

The Mail Steamers leave Louisville daily for Cincinnati, where they arrive so as to connect with the cars of the Little Miami Railroad at 6 A. M. or 5 P. M., for Columbus, connecting there with Central Ohio Railroad, through Newark and Zanesville to Bellesir, on the Ohio, opposite Benwood station, 4 miles below Wheeling. At this place the connection with the B. and O. Railroad is made direct. By express train of this route, the time from Cincinnati to Baltimore is less than 22 hours, and to Washington less than 25 hours.

THROUGH TICKETS are sold as follows: By mail steamers to Cincinnati, from Louisville to Washington, $18; to Baltimore $17. to Philadelphia, $18; and to New York, $20 50. To be had of F. CARTER, Ticket Agent, at southeast corner of Third and Water streets, Louisville.

☞ Be sure to ask for tickets by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad route.

THROUGH TICKETS may also be had at the office of the Jeffersonville Railroad for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad route, by way of the Jeffersonville, Ohio, and Mississippi, Little Miami, and Central Ohio Railroad, at the following rates: From Louisville to Washington, $18 50; to Baltimore, $17 50; to Philadelphia, $18 50; to New York, $21.

At WHEELING or Benwood the passenger takes the superior cars of the B. and O. Railroad, which leave daily at 5 P. M., and 11:35 P. M., for Baltimore, Washington, (or Philadelphia) by close connection, arriving there in 9 or 17 hours, including stoppages. For safety, speed, regularity, beauty of the country, and general comfort, this road is second to none in the Union.

FREIGHTS.—With the largest equipment of any Railroad in the United States, the company is prepared to do an immense business in the transportation of freights, which are carried with care and dispatch, and at rates as low as those of any other first class line. The road makes immediate connection at the wharves and in the streets of Baltimore with the Railroad to Philadelphia and New York, steamers of Ericsson and Baltimore Steamship Company's lines, by canal and sea, to New York and Boston, steamers to Norfolk, Charleston, Savannah, &c.

For particulars see freight tariff, copies of which may be had of any of the Forwarding Houses in the West.

HAVING LEFT THE CITY FOR a short time, I have given up my business to my son, who will be found at my old stand, in Eighth street, between Main and Market, who is in possession of an ample supply of my medicines, as also the full knowledge of preparing them, having prepared all that I have used for many years.

The cures witnessed in the city of Louisville by these remedies, render it vain for human language to attempt equality, and one which makes plain and easy to poor suffering human nature remedies for disease, which has ever been considered by the most accomplished, scientific, and the most learned and extensive practitioner without a remedy through all time past. ☞ The Democrat says that the two Americans first killed in the lower part of the city "were shot by an Irishman, without a motive that any one could see." This is an admission that they were harming no one.—Louisville Journal.

And this shows how ready you are to tell a falsehood. Two or three of your affidavit makers say that the Irishmen commenced firing without any provocation, and therefore their story is incredible. They didn't see all, or don't tell all they saw. They are flatly contradicted by one of your own witnesses, who states that the Irishman was struck at before he shot. They are flatly contradicted by Capt Thomas, who was observing these Irishmen closely, for he suspected they were armed. He saw one of the mob step out and strike the Irishman before he shot. These two witnesses prove that the Know-Nothing mob commenced the fight in which Rhodes and Graham were killed. One of them is the Louisville Journal's own witness; the other is not an ex parte witness. He published a card unsolicited.

Let it be remembered, that one of the Journal's own witnesses swears that the Know-Nothing mob began the fight in which two of their members were killed.

If the three Irishmen had consented to be knocked down and beaten to death, it would have passed off very peaceable, as the knocking down and beating at the polls did.

Another of the Journal's witnesses proves to any one of common sense that Rhodes knew the mob was going to attack the Irish in Quinn's Row. He warned his friend McDonald to shut up his house; that there were drunken men about. What sort of drunken men were these, that it should be necessary for an Irishman to shut up his house of business?

But the truth is, these witnesses tell but a part of the truth. This Know-Nothing mob came up Market street, from the Eighth Ward polls, to the number of fifty or a hundred, armed with clubs, that they had been using over the heads of unoffending men all day. They declared to Rhodes, in the presence of others, that they were going round to Main street to fight. Rhodes immediately went round to warn his Irish friend to shut up his house, for he knew what was coming. This we can prove by eye-witnesses. It was well known in that vicinity that the mob was coming to attack the Irish, after it was in motion to accomplish its purpose, which had been threatened before the day of election. They commenced upon three Irishmen, who happened to be armed, and gave them a hot reception. Instead of being very innocent, the very leaders of the mob ran round the square yelling to Americans to rally, that two of their members had been killed; and the armed ruffians did rally from all parts of the city, and hundreds swelled their ranks, stimulated by the lie that the Irish were armed to kill unoffending Americans. The story was a lie. Just like the lie that the Catholic Church was full of arms; that the Germans had taken the First Ward polls with guns; that the Irish on Fifth street were armed on Tuesday after the bloody Monday.

All these lies have perished. They fell from their barefaced character. There remains yet the lie that Quinn's Row was an arsenal, prepared to kill unoffending Americans. Part of the evidence of its falsehood is given to the flames; but there is enough left to damn the author of the falsehood. It is like the thousand and one lies propagated on Monday to stimulate to deeds of blood; and it still lives to screen the murderers, whose deeds cry to Heaven for vengeance.

This whole city remembers that Quinn's houses were assailed by a mob on the night after the May election—stoned, and some of them partially destroyed. There was no firing then; no excuse offered for the infamy. The police arrested no one; no investigation of the affair took place. A repetition of the infamy was threatened. The inmates of those houses were warned of what they had to expect, without the slightest chance of protection from the Know-Nothing city authorities. A few of them had guns, it seems—and no wonder.

What were our Mayor and police about? They knew what was to be apprehended. They knew what had happened. They were asked for protection, did they give it?

The mob came on its errand of outrage. Two or three men were killed by the parties assailed, and that was made an excuse for outrages which, in brutality, exceed anything of the kind ever perpetrated in an American city.

We have not written a word that we cannot prove, and that by testimony that will convince any man who has any honesty left in him, however prejudiced he may be.

SCENES BEYOND THE GRAVE: TRANCE OF MARIETTA DAVIS. From Notes, by Rev. J. L. SCOTT. New York.

It seems that in the summer of 1848 a young woman, named Marietta Davis, living at Berlin, New York, fell into a trance which lasted nine days. When she recovered from the trance she delared that her spirit had visited the eternal world. She stated to her friends that she was not to remain with them long; and she died in seven months, at the time predicted by herself. This work contains an account of what she saw in the other world. She meets with a glorified being, like Dante's Beatrice, who shows and explains to her the glories of Heaven.

It is easy to see that these visions are the results of her waking ideas. The ideas received in the normal state were intensified in the trance till they become sensible images. We have no donbt she believed she really saw all these things, for to her they were realities. The beautiful sights and sounds are described in glowing colors, and there is no wonder she longed to return to them from earth.

Gilliss's Report on the Riots.

At the last session of the Board of Aldermen said report was read, and, on motion of Alderman Harris, the same was laid upon the table, all the members present voting in the affirmative.

But in consequence of it having been sent to the Board of Aldermen through mistake, and being a document belonging exclusively to the Common Council, no notice was taken of the action in the official report.

O. H. STRATTAN, Clerk B. A.

The above statement, signed by Mr. Strattan, Clerk of the Board of Aldermen, was published in yesterday's Courier. Inasmuch as no notice had appeared in their published proceedings of this action of the Aldermen, we had supposed that nothing had been done by that body in reference to it. We are happy to perceive that there is sufficent self-respect in a portion of our public functionaries to restrain them from indorsing a document which deserves the unmitigated scorn of every man who has the least regard for truth or decency.

☞ The editor of the Louisville Journal makes a miserably abortive effort to defend the police for their inactivity on the day of the election. He does not touch the main cause of complaint, which is, that his hired bullies were permitted, throughout the whole forenoon, to beat and maim every foreigner who dared to approach the polls, while the police either stood by inactive or participated in the outrage. The editor of the Journal has not the impudence to deny that peaceable men were thus knocked down and beaten by Know-Nothing bullies? Can he point to the arrest of a single one of those bullies? The only arrests made were of be unfortunate victims of the outrages.

☞ In every instance, where we have spoken of the matter at all, we have said that there were disturbances at two or three of the polls, and that a few persons were knocked down.—Journal.

But your friends of the City Council say that "nothing improper" occurred at the polls. Have they lied about the facts, or do they mean there is "nothing improper" in knocking down peaceable and unoffending citizens, merely because of their religious opinions or place of birth?

☞ There was little fighting at the polls on bloody Monday, the editor of the Louisville Journal persists in asserting; and that is a part of the truth. There was knocking down, clubbing, beating, and chasing with stones and brickbats! There was very little fighting. The cowardly assassins ran whenever there was any prospect of a fight. A dozen or so armed with clubs would beat one Irishman or German. The moment there was a prospect of equality, they took to their heels. The cowards attacked three Irishmen in a crowd, but at the sight of pistols they showed their brave heels and coat tails. There was, indeed, little or no fighting at the polls, unless you call that fighting in which a dozen beat one unresisting man. This took place in fifty or a hundred instances. To these transactions there were plenty of eye-witnesses. It must be denied, however. Party necessity demands the lie, and it must be told and stuck to; but—mark it—a lie can't live.

☞ The pious editor of the Journal thinks that the grasshoppers that are destroying vegetation around Salt Lake are a special providence sent by the Almighty to punish Mormonism. As they are equally destructive in California, we suppose they must be intended as an infliction upon the people of that State for their want of faith in Sam. Such remarks, when applied to the misfortunes of even Mormons, are, to say the least of it, in very bad taste. They are part and parcel of the old fashioned Puritanism, that saw a "judgment" in every misfortune befalling the wicked, but only a "trial" when the same evil overtook the righteous.

☞ The guilty should hold their tongues. It is unwise to tell stories. The Louisville Journal's affidavits, and the report to the Council, carry the proof of guilt on their face. The latter document is conclusive Those who have no censures for diabolical deeds, are none too good to commit them. The impartial man will say, upon reading that report—it is enough; we need go no further for the guilty.

☞ George D. Prentice is trying to write himself into the belief that he possesses the heart and conrage of a man, and would have the public believe that he absolutely awed us out of sight the other day. One might indeed make haste to get away from such a mass of moral and physical rottenness. A pusillanimous wretch, who has been kicked and cuffed through the world by almost every one into whose way he has fallen, to talk of scaring people. Bah!

HOW THEY READ THE NEWSPAPERS.—It is a proof of the great variety of human development to notice persons reading newspapers.

Mr. General Intelligence first glances at the telegraph, then at the editorial, and then goes off into the correspondence.

Mr. Sharper opens with stocks and markets, and ends with the advertisements for wants, hoping to find a victim.

Aunt Sukey first reads the stories, and then looks to see who's married.

Miss Prim looks at the marriage column first, and then reads the stories.

Mr. Marvelous is curious to see the list of accidents, murders, and the like.

Uncle Ned hunts up the funny things, and then smokes and laughs at his will.

Madame Gossip turns to the local department for her thunder, and having obtained that, throws the paper aside.

Mrs. Friendly drops the first tear of sympathy over the death column, and the next over the marriages; for says she, one is about as bad as the other.

Mr. Politician dashes into the telegraph, and from that into the editorial, ending with the speeches.

Our literary friend is eager for a nice composition from the editor or some kind correspondent. After analysing the rhetoric, grammar, and logic of the production, he turns a careless glance at the news department, and takes his Greek, perfectly satisfied.

The laborer searches among the wants for a better opening in his business, and—but enough—an extension of the list were useless. There is just as much difference in readers as in—anything else.

But the worst is yet to come. If each does not find a column or less of his peculiar liking, the editor has, of course, been lazy and is unworthy of patronage. Oh, who would'nt be an editor.

Alb. Knickerbocker.

SLAVERY AND COMMERCE.—The following just observations are taken from the Richmond (Va.) Dispatch. Hunt's Merchant's Magazine copies them, and remarks, "Right or wrong, there is more truth than poetry in its statement:"

"The whole commerce of the world turns upon the product of slave labor. What could commerce be without cotton, sugar, tobacco, rice, and naval stores? All those are the product of slave labor. It is a settled fact, that free labor cannot produce them in sufficient quantity to supply the demands of mankind. It has been said that one free laborer is equal to five slaves. If this be so, why has not free labor been employed in the production of the above staples? It has been attempted, and, in every case in which it has been introduced, has failed. The world follows its interests, and if free labor was more valuable than slavo, it would be employed at this moment in the United States, Cuba, and Brazil, which are all open to free labor. And herein note the greater liberality and self-reliant strength of the slave over the free States. The former freely permit the Northern capitalists to come in with free labor and compete with his slave labor. The latter pass laws prohibiting the Southern capitalist from coming in with his slaves to compete with Northern labor. Their prohibitory laws are passed because they are afraid of slave competition; whereas, the South, in the face of the pretence which has been handed down from Wilberforce to these, that one white laborer is equal to five slaves, throws her doors wide open and invites the free laborer to walk in and try his hand, and it dare not come. What would become of England, the arch agitator of Abolitionism, but for cotton, by the manufacture of which she has waxed fat and strong, while she curses the system by which it is produced? By the way, will some one inform us why the English conscience has never suffered as much from slavery in Brazil as slavery in the United States?

CHLOROFORM ROBBERY.—A man from Cambridge, named John Ryder, reports to the police that he visited the city last Saturday night, and fell in company with a man, who took him round and exhibited the various shows to be seen by gas light. After perambulating until quite late at night, and drinking rather freely, the kind friend called his attention to something in a dark alleyway, and, as he stepped aside to take a look, a sponge saturated with chloroform was applied to his nostrils. What trifling sense he had was soon steeped in oblivion, and, when he awoke again, he found that his watch, money, and a deed of a burial lot in Cambridge cemetery, were gone, as well as the "sponging" friend who had been his jolly companion.—Boston Times.

☞ The Chicago Times thus welcomes an old citizen of Louisville to a home among them in Chicago:

EX-MAYOR SPEED, OF LOUISVILLE.—We yesterday had the pleasure of meeting J. S. Speed, Esq., lately and for several years past the Mayor of Lonisville. Mr. Speed has come to Chicago to live. He is a most estimable gentleman, and a man of vast practical knowledge, and will not only be an acquisition to the business circles of Chicago, but prove a valued and exemplary citizen. He is but one of very large number of wealthy and refined gentlemen who have recently come hither from Kentucky, or who, within the last ten days, have been here making arrangements for the removal of their families and capital to this great city. We are sure that the advent among us of such men as Mr. Speed will be welcomed by all classes and parties of our citizens.

PROFESSION VS. PRACTICE.—"A hospitable reception to the persecuted and oppressed of every clime." This is one of the "planks" of the "Platform of the American party," so called. Its true force and meaning are most strikingly exemplified by the "hospitable reception" which the "persecuted and oppressed of every clime" have just met with at the hands of this same self-styled "American party" in Lonisville. To us such an "hospitable reception" seems very much like that which old Tom. Corwin, in a speech in the Senate, invited the soldiers of the United States who went to fight our battles in Mexico. For "hospitable reception" read "hospitable graves," and the fact accords well with the real sentiment of this new-fangled "American Platform."—Boston Times.

A NEW WAY TO RAISE FUNDS.—We have heard of the Yankee who started a whistling school for the purpose of replenishing his exhausted treasury, and many other dodges for the same purpose, but never until last evening have we seen the Professors of Phrenology exercising their calling in the open air. The Professor obtained a subject in front of the American Hotel, and for a short time quite a large crowd were considerably amused by a description of the numerous bumps on his customer's head. One bump the Professor dwelt upon with much feeling, and that was acquisitiveness. On this point he was particular to say, that his subject spent all he could get, did'nt value money a bit, and was ever ready to bestow it upon worthy objects. At the conclusion of the examination, a quarter found its way into the pocket of the Professor, which the crowd seemed to consider pretty conclusive evidence that the subject could not keep a cent.

☞ On a child being told, the other day, that he must be broken of a bad habit, he replied, 'Papa, hadn't I better be mended!"

DIED,

At 4 o'clock, yesterday morning, 22d inst., Capt. ELIJAH CHADDICK, in the 65th year of his age, after a protracted illness of seven months, which he bore with great fortitude and patience.

For many months during the latter part of his illness, Capt. Chaddick was favored with the kind and fervent spiritual ministrations of that excellent man of God, Rev. Wm. L. Breckinridge, whose labor of love was crowned with divine success in his conversion, and he died in the full assurance of an unfading immortality. He fell gently asleep in the arms of Jesus, as an infant folded to rest upon a mother's breast. Capt. C. was an old citizen of Louisville, and one of the few left of that sturdy class of men, the pioneer boatmen upon our western waters, whose labors have contributed so much to the growth in wealth and population of the Mississippi Valley. He was an honest man, a good citizen, an obliging neighbor, the friend of the poor, an affectionate and indulgent father, and a devoted husband. What he most regretted in his last illness was an irreligious life.

His numerous friends and acquaintances are requested to attend his funeral from the First Presbyterian Church, on the corner of Sixth and Green streets, on this evening, Thursday, at 4 o'clock. d&wl

On the 16th inst., at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Hackley, in Anderson county, Ky., Mrs. S. M. FLETCHER, in the 81st year of her age.

More Light on the Subject.

A BLUE AND WHITE Double Quick Work Sky Light, just introduced by ROESBERG, enables him to take Daguerreotypes in a few seconds and for the greatly reduced price of 50 cents and upwards. It is also one of the best lights ever known to produce correct likenesses, either of children or adults. The red hair and blue eyes have heretofore been difficult to take; but it is no longer any trouble to give them the real artistic disposition of light and shade. The new Sky Light operates as well in cloudy as in clear weather, and gives the likeness the true tone of life. The public will therefore look to their own interest by calling on Roesberg before going to any other gallery, as there you can buy cheaper, receive a better case, and a much truer likeness than at any other place in the city.

Just received, a splendid lot of handsome cases, such as Velvet, Papier Mache, Pearl, and other kinds too numerous to mention.

Persons having Daguerreotypes badly taken by other artists can have them retaken for 50 cents, and if not bettered no charge will be made, at the Mammoth Daguerrean Gallery, No. 531 Main street, between Second and Third. [je4] GEORGE F. ROESBERG.

☞ JUST think of it, at BROWN'S GALLERY you may obtain a fine Daguerreotype of yourself for the trifling sum of One Dollar, inclosed in a neat case. Now, don't delay any longer, but take your families down and have their pictures taken, and you will not regret it. Sam is hard to beat. jy17

To the Public.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Feb. 8th, 1855.

MR. SOLOMONS—Dear Sir: I called upon you at your office, on Fourth street, in December last, and told you that I had purchased several pair of Spectacles at different stores, but had never obtained any that did not cause great pain and fatigue to the eyes, but am happy to state that the pain I purchased of you suit beyond my expectations, by day and candle light. I have found my sight improve so much since I have used them, that I cannot sit down and read small print without them. Wishing you every sucess your great enterprise deserves, I remain, yours truly, S. HILLMAN.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Feb. 24, 1855.

MR. G. SOLOMONS—Dear Sir: Having satisfactorily tried a pair of Spectacles purchased of you, and finding them far superior to any I have ever used, in that they rest and strengthen the eye, whilst all others have pained, wearied, and weakened my sight, I cordially recommend them to the use of all who stand in need of them.

Respectfully yours, S. J. EVANS,

I have used Mr. SOLOMONS' Eye Glass for a very brief period, with decided advantage, and have no hesitation in stating that a defective vision of long standing has been relieved, and the organs seem to be acquiring vigor and tone. I therefore cheerfully bear testimony to their excellency and accuracy, as also to Mr. Solomons' skill as a practical Optician, and the wonderful facility with which he adapts his Glasses to the various peculiarities of vision. RICHMOND, July 9th, 1855.

Messrs. WM. S. BEERS & CO.—Gents: Considerations of duty to the afflicted alone prompt me to send you this voluntary testimonial to the great value of "CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE," for that almost incurable disease, SCROFULA.

Without being disposed or deeming it necessary to go into the particulars of the case, I can say that the astonishing results that have been produced by the use of that medicine on a member of my own family, and under my own observation and superintendence, after the skill of the best physicians had been exhausted and all the usual remedies had failed, fully justify me in recommending its use to all who may be suffering from that dreadful malady.

I do not mean to say that it is adapted to all constitutions, or that it will afford the same relief in all cases—for, of course, I can know nothing about that; but from what I have seen of the effects, I would not hesitate to use it in any and every case of Scrofula with persons for whom I felt an interest, or over whom I could exercise influence or control. Respectfully yours,

☞ The prevalence of incorrect notions upon the subject of medicine is a great cause of misery. Medical practice should be governed by principles cautiously deduced from the contributions of long experience and close observations. How important, then, that no medicine should be taken by invalids unless it emanates from men of talent, judgment, and the strictest probity. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia, is a preparation emanating from one of the most celebrated practitioners of modern times, and one of the greatest medical writers Germany ever produced. This article is now in able hands. As evidence that the article is prepared carefully and skillfully, it is producing the effect the original inventor intended. It is used by many of the leading practitioners of Philadelphia in cases of debility of the digestive organs and biliary apparatus, and the diseases arising therefrom. We therefore recommend this medicine to suffering invalids.

INDIAN EXHIBITION,

UNITED FOR 1855,

WILL EXHIBIT AT LOUISVILLE ON MONDAY AND TUESDAY, Sept. 3d and 4th,

FOR TWO DAYS ONLY.

One Price of Admission to witness the Three Combined Exhibitions.

THE PROPRIETORS OF THE Menagerie, Circus, and Indian Troupe, with a desire to give entire satisfaction, and to place their united exhibitions quite beyond the reach of competition, have entered into an arrangement between themselves for the combination of their three superb establishments into one colossal exhibition—the whole of which may be now witnessed collectively under one pavilion at the price of admission heretofore required for each of the same exhibitions when separate.

The procession into town will be formed of the Troupe of equestrians, superbly mounted, on gaily decorated steeds, preceded by a full military band, driven through the principal streets in an appropriate carriage, followed by the Seneca Indian Chiefs and Warriors in their native costume, mounted on their hunting horses, and fantastically decorated and caparisoned, with the carriages, cages, and vans, containing the animals, to the mammoth pavilion erected for the exhibition.

☞ Doors open at 2 and 7 o'clock.

THE DAILY DEMOCRAT.

What Might be Done.

BY CHAS. MACKAY.

What might be done if men were wise,
What glorious deeds, my suffering brother—
Would they unite
In love and right,
And cease their scorn for one another?

Oppression's heart may be imbued
With kindred drops of loving kindness;
And knowledge pour,
From shore to shore,
Light on the eyes of mental blindness.

All slavery, warfare, lies, and wrongs—
All vice and crime might die together,
And air and corn
Be free as warmth in sunny weather.

What might be done? this might be done;
And more than this, my suffering brother—
More than the tongue
E'er said or sung,
If men were wise and loved each other.

(From the Boston Post.)

Melting Accident.

He clasped his Juliana's form,
That form the fairest under heaven,
His love just like the day, was warm—
The mercury at ninety-seven.
Oh, Juliana dear, he cried,
My love its top degree is getting;
'Tis gold in truth's alembic tried,
That never can grow less by sweating.
She bowed her head upon his breast
As hotter grew the summer weather,
And as her form he warmly pressed,
They melted right away together!!

WASHINGTON.—The following Indian legend, relative to the spirit-home of Washington, is extracted from Morgan's League of the Iroquois. It is curious, as showing the estimation in which the Father of his Country was held by this singular people, and their idea of future felicity:

"Among the modern beliefs engrafted upon the ancient faith of the Iroquois, there is one which is worthy of particular notice. It relates to Washington. According to their present belief, no white man ever reached the Indian Heaven. Not having been created by the Great Spirit, no provision was made for him in their scheme of theology. He was excluded both from Heaven and from the place of punishment. But an exception was made in favor of Washington. Because of his justice and benevolence to the Indian, he stood pre-eminent above all other white men. When, by the peace of 1783, the Indians were abandoned by their British allies, and left to make their own terms with the American Government, the Iroquois were more exposed to severe measures than the other tribes in their alliance. At this critical moment, Washington interfered in their behalf as the protector of Indian rights, and the advocate of a policy towards them of the most enlightened justice and humanity. After his death, he was mourned by the Iroquois as a benefactor of their race, and his memory was cherished with reverence and affection. A belief was spread among them that the Great Spirit had received him into a celestial residence upon the plains of Heaven, the only white man whose deeds had entitled him to this heavenly favor. Just by the entrance of Heaven, is a wall inclosure, the ample grounds within which are laid out with avenues and shaded walks. Within is a spacious mansion, constructed in the fashion of a fort. Every object in nature which could please a cultivated taste, had been gathered in this blooming Eden to render it a most delightful dwelling place for the immortal Washington. The faithful Indian, as he enters Heaven, passes the inclosure. He sees and recognizes the illustrious inmate as he walks to and fro in quiet meditation. But no word passes his lips. Dressed in his uniform, and in a state of perfect felicity, he is destined to remain through eternity in the solitary enjoyment of the celestial residence prepared for him by the Great Spirit."

RISTORI.—The Paris correspondent of the N. Y. Times, writing by the America, says:

Madame Ristori has achieved another triumph in "Maria de' Tolomei." The subject of this tragedy is the imprisonment of the heroine, by her husband, led by this fage to doubt her fidelity, in a castle situated in the midst of the fatal Tuscan Maremma. Her jealous and repentant lord learns his error just in time to close her eyes and to receive her last sigh. She was literally buried in flowers, on reappearing after the fall of the curtain, which she was forced to do five or six times. The most conspicuous object in the house, at this moment, was Alexander Dumas, with a tremendous head of hair, applauding like a madman. Ristori, who felt that this performance was to be her grand final appeal to the Parisians, took her two children with her to the theatre. Before going upon the stage she kissed them both, and devoutly made the sign of the cross. Superstitious lady. However, the ovation at the close of the performance was certainly the most enthusiastic demonstration I have never witnessed in Paris. The bust of the tragedienne, in plaster, has been placed in the saloon.

Dumas set up all that night writing his critique upon the performance, for the next morning's Mousquetaire.

LOVE LETTERS.—Don't burn love letters, says one of our cotemporaries. A package of love letters recently brought a man twenty thousand dollars, in Bristol, England. His first flame married another man, and he himself also married, but retained the love letters of his first love, against an occasional remonstrance of his wife. After some years the writer of the letters died a widow, leaving her old lover twenty thousand dollars, and her letters to him were essential to prove his identity.

AYER'S PILLS,

A NEW AND SINGULARLY SUCcessful remedy for the cure of all Bilious diseases—Costiveness, Indigestion, Jaundice, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Fevers, Gout, Humors, Nervousness, Irritability, Inflammations, Headache, Pains in the Breast, Side, Back, and Limbs, Female Complaints, &c. Indeed, very few are the diseases in which a purgative medicine is not more or less required, and much sickness and suffering might be prevented if a harmless but effectual Cathartic were more freely used. No person can feel well while a costive habit of body prevails; besides, it soon generates serious and often fatal diseases, which might have been avoided by the timely and judicious use of a good purgative. This is alike true of colds, feverish symptoms, and bilious derangements. They all tend to become or produce the deep seated and formidable distempers which loan the hearses all over the land. Hence, a reliable family physic is of the first importance to the public health; and this Pill has been perfected with consummate skill to meet that demand. An extensive trial of its virtues by physicians, professors, and patients, has shown results surpassing anything hitherto known of any medicine. Cures have been effected beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth.

Among the many eminent gentlemen who have testified to the value of this remedy are the following:

Dr. A. A. HAYES, Analytical Chemist, of Boston, and State Assayer of Massachusetts, whose high professional character is indorsed by the Hon. EDWARD EVERETT, Sena or of the United States.

ROBERT C. WINTHROP, ex-Speaker of the House of Representatives.

ABBOTT LAWRENCE, Minister Plen. to England.

†JOHN B. FITZPATRICK, Catholic Bishop of Boston; also,

Dr. J. R. CHILTON, Practical Chemist, of New York city, indorsed by

Hon. W. L. MARCY, Secretary of State.

WM. B. ASTOR, the richest man in America.

S. LELAND & CO., Proprietors of the Metropolitan Hotel, and others.

But space forbids, we could give many hundred certificates from all parts where the Pills have been used, but evidence even more convincing than the experience of eminent public men is found in their effects upon trials.

These Pills, the result of long investigation and study, are offered to the public as the best and most complete which the present state of medical science can afford. They are compounded not of the drugs themselves, but of the medicinal virtues only of vegetable remedies, extracted by chemical process in a state of purity, and combined together in such a manner as to insure the best results. This system of composition for medicines has been found, in the Cherry Pectoral and Pills both, to produce a more efficient remedy than had hitherto been obtained by any process. The reason is perfectly obvious. While by the old mode of composition every medicine is burdened with more or less of acrimonious and injurious qualities, by this each individual virtue only that is desired for the curative effect is present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence, it is self-evident the effects should prove, as they have proved, more purely remedial, and the Pills a surer, more powerful antidote to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicines should be taken under the counsel of an attending physician, and as he could not properly judge of a remedy without knowing its composition, I have supplied the accurate formulæ by which both my Pectoral and Pills are made to the whole body of practitioners in the United States and British American provinces. I, however, there should be any one who has not received them, they will be promptly forwarded by mail to his request.

Of all the patent medicines that are offered how few would be taken if their composition was known! Their life consists in their mystery. I have no mysteries.

The composition of my preparations is laid open to all men, and all who are competent to judge on the subject freely acknowledge their convictions of their intrinsic merits. The Cherry Pectoral was pronounced by scientific men to be a wonderful medicine before its effects were known. Many eminent physicians have declared the same thing of my Pills, and even more confidently, and are willing to certify that their anticipations were more than realized by their effects upon trial.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Competition is the Soul of Trade.

THE TIME FOR DEALERS TO lay in their Fall and Winter stock of Clothing is close at hand, and the aim of every one being to buy in the best and cheapest market, the undersigned deem it a duty due to the trading community and to themselves to draw attention to their

PIONEER CLOTHING ESTABLISHMENT,
(WHOLESALE ONLY),
Northwest corner of Main and Fifth streets.

They have profited by the dull times of the past months in making up and laying in a stock of Clothing suitable for the approaching season, such as cannot be competed with by any other house in their line.

The stock consists of every variety of Garments, from the Shanghai of the man of fashion to the rough Blanket Coat of the digger of the soil, with full suits to match.

All they ask is an investigation of their goods. They are determined to convince the most skeptical that their stock is the stock of the season. A general invitation is hereby tendered to the trade to call and examine.

DAILY DEMOCRAT.

THURSDAY, - - AUGUST 28 1855.

For Amusements, Auction Sales, and Steamboats, see appropriate Heads.

☞ See advertisement of talented business men wanted as agents.

☞ Should any carrier fail to deliver the Democrat promptly, word left at the office will remedy the neglect.

YEARLY advertisers will please hand in their favors as early as they conveniently can, during the day.

☞ Subscribers changing their residences will please leave word at the office, so that our carriers may find them promptly.

☞ We are obliged to Capt. E. M. Stone for late eastern papers.

☞ Those who want a good daguerreotype will find it their interest to go to Harris's.

☞ Messrs. Green & Burke have their rooms so full, that they will hold another sale of furniture this morning at 9½ o'clock.

THE SHOE TRADE.—Eighty thousand pairs of shoes have been sent to Boston from Haverhill, Mass., within two days of this week. They are principally for the Southern market.

THANKS.—We have some of the kindest friends in the world. Mr. Jones, of Adams' Express Co., and our friends of the Cincinnati, Hamilton, and Dayton railroad, laid New York papers of the 21st upon our desk last night, at 10½ o'clock.

☞ The Marshal of the Louisville Chancery Court will sell to-day at 9 o'clock, at the store on Market street above Second, a desirable lot of millinery and fancy goods. See advertisement in another column.

CHILLS AND FEVER.—We again say to our friends, who may be afflicted with this emaciating and loathesome disease, call upon Dr. U. C. Sherrill, 465 Market street, between Third and Fourth, and get a bottle of Mortimore's Eutrophic. This is a sure remedy, and leaves no bad effects in the system.

NAVAL ENGAGEMENT—GLORIOUS VICTORY.—A few nights since, a sail-boat, approaching the shore at Bath, Me., was boarded by a police officer, whom the brave crew instantly threw overboard. The gallant officer, however, again boarded the enemy, and succeeded in capturing the vessel, with a cargo of brandy and wine valued at $400.

A CHANCE FOR LIBERIAN BARDS.—Tupper, the poet, has had a gold medal struck, to be presented to the author of the best literary production, in prose and verse, by a resident of Liberia. He proposes that such a medal shall be presented annually for the encouragement of science and literature.

POLICEMEN SOLD.—The schooner Linda, which arrived last Sunday morning at Newburyport, Mass., was instantly boarded by about twenty policemen, (from information furnished them,) who seized three 24 gallon kegs, one 10 do. and one 10 do., which proved on examination to be full of salt water.

GODEY'S LADIES' BOOK.—The publisher has sent this monthly to us for September. It is, as usual, full of interesting reading matter, especially that part of it devoted exclusively to ladies—we mean Mrs Hale's department. We notice that the stories are of a better character than have been published previously as reading for the ladies.

ALL RIGHT AGAIN.—The western division of the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, from St. Louis to Vincennes, is now in full operation, thereby making all connections from Louisville to St. Louis by the Jeffersonville and Indianapolis Railroad. For particulars, please apply at the company's office, No. 555 Main street, where THE HALL, who is agent, will attend to you in style.

AMERICAN EXPRESS AGENCY.—We call attention to the advertisement of the American Express Agency. The office has been removed from Fifth street to Main, between Fourth and Fifth, in the house lately occupied by Hutchings & Co., bankers. The office has been very nicely fitted up, giving one good evidence that the people are encouraging the transportation of goods by express. In the hands of Mr. Tryon the Louisville agency has very largely gained on the good will of the people, and will continue to gain so long as he may retain his post.

Goods are carried through, to, and from every city, town, and village of importance in the Union, and many of the important cities in Canada, Europe, and Australia. Our friends who desire their goods shipped safely, carefully, and with great dispatch, will lose nothing by putting them into Mr. Tryon's hands.

EXTENSIVE ATTEMPTS AT BURGLARY.—Night before last some fellow or fellows made a great attempt at burglary. Between 10 and 11 o'clock one of J. B. Wilder & Bro.'s clerks, who had just come in to go to bed, gave the alarm that the store had been entered. His room was in the fourth story, and his trunk had been broken open, and his clothing and papers scattered around the room.—After the alarm was given, it was discovered that several other adjoining houses had been entered and searched.

In Robinson & Bro.'s two trunks in the fourth story, belonging to the clerks, were broken open, and from one of them, Mr. Carson's, $50 in gold was taken. A side door in this house, leading to the first story store-room, was broken open, but nothing taken, although filled with silks and fancy goods.

The latches of Garvin, Bell & Co., and Mr. Duncan were forced, but there was no evidence that anything had been taken.

Gordon & Co.'s house was entered, and a trunk belonging to one of the clerks broken open—nothing was lost, however.

The house of Montgomery, Davidge & Co. did not escape their attention. The desk in the room of Mr. Keats, shoe-dealer, in the corner house, up stairs, with Montgomery Davidge & Co., had been tried. An effort had been made to pry it open with a hatchet found in a third-story window, and a false key was left in the desk. This must have been the first house entered, inasmuch as it is next above the new four-story houses not yet roofed.—These houses are only three stories in the rear and from the roofs of the back buildings the front rooms could be easily reached. There can be but little doubt that the burglars had been watching the premises for some time; but if they only got $50, they were risking their lives and doing a big night's work for a small sum. It was not difficult to go all through the upper stories of these houses while everybody was down stairs or out in the city.

"MAC."—Some of the best men in the country have the syllable "Mac" at tached to their names. Their lives have been such as to cause them to be proud of their names, and their country to be proud of them; but when a man is ashamed of his ancestry because they were Irishmen, and of "Mac" because it is of Irish origin, he deserves no sympathy, it matters not how much he is ridiculed on account of being ashamed of his name.

Baltimore Republican.

Every word true. But our friend of the Republican is slightly mistaken in spelling the prefix. "Mac" is the Scotch method, and simple "Mc" the Irish. The difference arises no doubt in the inclination among the Scotch to the use of a broader sound than their brothers across the channel.—The Irish give the prefix more the sound of "Mick" than "Mac," and yet not so long as Mick. We, (local,) bless the Green Isle as the birth-place of our paternal grandfathers; and if there is any one matter not personally connected with our ancestry, over which he rejoice, it is that our grandfather on one side was an Irishman, and on the other side a Scotchman. We are of the second generation native-born, but we love the name and history of our grandfather's land, and glory in the fact that our name reveals our ancestry. We put the prefix "Mc" to our name, and so far from being ashamed of it, will teach our sons to love the name and glory in the land of their ancestor's birth.

NOTICES.

Green & Burke have requested us to say that, owing to the crowded condition of their rooms, and goods of all kinds are still rapidly coming in on them, they are compelled to have a sale to-day at 9½ o'clock. Go to No. 412 Market street, bet. Fourth and Fifth, if you want bargains in Household and Kitchen Furniture, Tinware, &c.

Police Court.

HON. GEO. W. JOHNSTON, JUDGE.

WEDNESDAY, August 22, 1855.

David Rush, committed August 20th, brought in and gave bail.

Wm. Ragan, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Bail in $100 for 2 months.

City vs. Ann Simpson, breach of ordinance. Fined $10.

Com'th by Isaac Harper, vs. Wm. Barrett, p. w. Bail in $200 for 3 months.

Same by Virginia Jones, vs. Ben Powell, jr., and Ed. Parker, p. w. Bail in $200 each for three months.

ANOTHER K.-N. PROCEEDING.—Yesterday evening, just about sundown, Sam. McCue and ——— Akers attacked Mr. ——— Orr, an Englishman or Irishman, and beat him very badly. The circumstances were as follows:

Mr. Orr keeps a grocery at the corner of Tonth and Walnut, and, among other things, sells liquor. McCue and Akers had drank two or three times—perhaps oftener—and refused to pay—at the same time calling for more, which Orr refused; whereupon they began upon him and beat him very severely. We do not know that they have been arrested; perhaps will not be, as it is all according to law, now-a-days, to steal a man's goods, and then knock him down, or kill him, if he asks for payment.

A NEW BOOK OF GEOGRAPHY.—Mr. A. Davidson, our next door neighbor on the North, has laid on our table a copy of Cornell's Intermediate Geography. The maps and reading matter are combined under one cover. The maps are good, the cuts are very pretty, and the appearance is very fine. We have no doubt it will prove an attractive study-book to the boys and girls. This is the second of the series, having been preceded by a Primary Geography. If we were a boy again we should be delighted to learn from such a book.

The following are a few of its original and distinctive features:

1. It has been carefully prepared and rendered sufficiently simple to meet the capacities of the grade of scholarship for which it is designed, viz: For pupils who have acquired but a few of the elements of Geographical science.

2. The maps are clear and distinct, containing no more of the earth's physical and political divisions than the yonthful student, at this stage of his advancement, may reasonably be expected to memorize and retain.

3. The matter contained in the department of Descriptive Geography being arranged under appropriate heads, renders it not only exceedingly easy for the pupil to acquire, but it assists him in making a comparative estimate of the chief characteristics of the most important divisions of the earth's surface.

4. The work contains an easy and practical system of studying a map, which will enable the student to completely daguerreotype its peculiar features with facility and accuracy upon the tablet of his memory.

5. By means of the system, and the simplicity of the maps, no time is wasted by the learner in fruitless searches, as he knows what he has to learn, and how to learn it.

RAILROAD ACCIDENTS.—Yesterday morning as the train of the Covington and Lexington Railroad was going out, when about two miles from Cynthiana, the cars ran over the leg of a black man, cutting his foot off just about the ancle. It seems that he had been cutting grass and fell asleep on the track—did not get off in time.

An Irishman named David Barry, had his foot and ancle cut off yesterday on the line of the Lexington and Frankfort Railroad, and his leg so bruised that amputation at the knee will be necessary.

It seems that he was expecting the train—had gone to a spring and gotten a drink, and returning, sat upon the rail, when he became drowsy. He heard the cars coming and made a start to get out of the way, but was not quick enough. We are not advised whether or no the engineer in either case blew a warning.

ROW BOAT UPSET—SIX PERSONS IN THE RIVER AT ONE TIME—TWO DROWNED.—There was quite a number of accidents on the East river on Sunday afternoon. About 7 o'clock P. M., officers Dusenbury and Murphy, of the Seventh district police, observed a boat in the river, with six persons on board, three of whom were females, which was rowed quite unskilfully, and presently, when opposite Peck slip ferry, Williamsburg, it upset, and the party were all thrown in the river. They managed to secure a hold on the boat, and kept above water until assistance was rendered. Several boats came to their rescue. John Brahun, Mrs. Brahan, Rachel Dunlap, and Mrs. Dunlap, were taken off in an exhausted condition, and conveyed to their residences. John Mahers, aged 27, was lost, together with his child, a boy of four years of age.—N. Y. Herald, 21st.

SAIL BOAT UPSET.—A sail boat was upset in the East river, opposite Grand street ferry, on Sunday evening, and six young men precipitated into the river. Fortunately a small row boat was near at hand, and succeeded in rescuing them all. Officer Lanville witnessed the accident, and rendered what service he could.—N. Y. Herald, 21st.

REVIEW OF THE MARKET.

OFFICE OF LOUISVILLE DAILY DEMOCRAT,
WEDNESDAY, August 22, 1855.

REMARKS—Flour continues in active demand, and rates are unchanged for present delivery. We learn that all of the millers have made engagements that anticipated all their productions for several days. An improved demand exists in the general markets, and trade is more animated in nearly every department. The following statement was received at the Merchants' Exchange, dated New Orleans August 22d: "Prime sugar 8½@8¾c."

Tobacco—This staple has an upward tendency, and we notice an increased firmness on the part of holders, with a slight improvement in prices during the past few days. In New York a fair demand prevails at full prices, with sales on the 17th of 100 hhds Ky. at $7 75@1200. Grant Hodgson & Co's. London monthly tobacco report says the sales last month did not exceed 400 hhds, of which 250 hhds were leaf, nearly all of export descriptions, including 100 hhds of very old import, taken by a manufacturer. The market has not presented any feature requiring particular comment. Holders appear confident in their position, and not inclined to make sales, unless at full rates, and the trade are equally indifferent, and seem in a great measure uninfluenced by the present state of the stock, or the reliable statements published as to the quantity and quality of the forthcoming importation; but this need not excite much surprise, when the present extreme rates of all descriptions of tobacco are compared with the depressed prices of manufactured goods. The stock is 8,961 hhds against 10,622 hhds in 1854. The principal business of the month was confined to Kentucky leaf at full rates; in strips a very limited business was transacted. The demand for Virginia was moderate, and chiefly confined to selections for immediate consumption. American stalks and mixed stalks a ready sale; smalls continue dull.

MANUFACTURED TOBACCO—Sales of 10 bxs Mo. do at 16c.

TOBACCO—Sales of 23 hhds at warehouses, viz:—3 hhds at $5 60@5 70, 7 at 5 90@6 05, 2 at 6 25@6 55, 3 at 6 90@7. 1 at 7 70, 6 at 8 25@8 65, and 1 at 9 80.

COFFEE—Sales of 50 bags Rio coffee at 11¾@12½c; sales of Laguayra do at 12c.

SUGAR—Sales of 20 hhds fair New Orleans do at 7¾c; small sales of strictly fair do at 8c.

MOLASSES—Sales of 55 bbls plantation molasses at 38c.

RICE—Sales at 7¾@8c.

FLOUR—Sales of 500 bbls superfine flour at $6 25, deliverable in two weeks from date; 450 bbls superfine do, for future delivery, at private terms; 680 bbls do do at $6 50@6 65.

WHEAT—Sales of 1,000 bushels of wheat at $1, delivered.

CORN—Sales of 300 sacks shelled corn at 65c, to a dealer, sacks extra.

OATS—Sales of 200 bushels oats at 35c, delivered in store.

PROVISIONS—Mess pork firmer; bacon and lard is firm at the advance noticed in our last; sales of 515 bbls mess pork at $17; small sales of M. O. do at $16; 7 casks bacon—clear sides 11c, ribbed sides 10c; Falls City hams 12c, pkgs extra; small sales of lard in kegs at 13c; 1,500 canvassed hams at 11½c, packed; 400 tres prime lard at 10c.

COTTON—Small sales of low middling do at 11c.

SHEETINGS—Sales of 40 bales Banner mills sheetings at 8¼c; 10 bales Canneiton do at 8½c.

WHISKY—Sales of 30 bbls rectified do at 32c.

IRON—A sale of 55 tons Tenn. No. 1 pig do at $30, 4 months.

SHOT—Sale of 100 bags Missouri do at $1 95, by the keg.

CHEESE—Sale of 25 bxs W. R. do at 8¾@9c.

BAGGING AND BALE ROPE—Small sales of fair bagging at 16½c, and rope at 7¾c.

RIVER AND WEATHER.

STILL FALLING.—The river was still falling last night, with five feet eight and a half inches water in the canal. The prospect now is that the water will go down to low stage, although the river was swelling a little yesterday at Cincinnati.

☞ Yesterday was an August day, as hot as comfortable.

NEW ORLEANS, August 22.

Arrived—Twicheli. Departed—Yorktown.

THE AUNT LETTY.—We happened down upon the Aunt Letty yesterday evening, just before she went over the falls—met an old acquaintance, with whom we had not met for six or seven years.

The boat is, in all respects, one of the neatest and best arranged that has been at our wharf for many a day. She has some conveniences about her that we have never seen. Her upper guards are very wide, her clerk's office is as comfortable as can be, the wash-room, barber-shop, and bar, are all in front of the office, and hid from view of the cabin; on the other side is the cook-room or kitchen alongside of the chimney, and in front of that a large store-room; in fact, the conveniences are so many that we haven't time to enumerate them all.—With the help of our friend, Captain Reeder, we struck up an acquaintance with Mr. Folger, one of her gentlemanly and courteous clerks, an acquaintance which we trust time will ripen into friendship.

The Aunt Letty is bound for St. Louis and Illinois river, and went over the falls last evening to Portland, under the guidance of Captain Jesse Vanslickle. She will leave Portland this morning at 10 o'clock. Passengers for St. Louis will not find to-day a better boat or kinder attentions.

We think Captain Baldwin has reason to be proud of his very beautiful boat. The clerks are Messrs. Albert G. Folger and Geo. L. Day. Mr. Day is of Allegheny city, and Mr. Folger, we believe, of Tennessee.—With Captain Baldwin on deck, and the others in the office, the "Aunt Letty" will be hard to beat.

☞ To-day is the regular day for the great Telegraph No. 3, the fastest boat above the falls. Captain Sam Hildreth commands, and he will pay all possible attention to the comfort of his passengers, taking them to Cincinnati in time for the morning trains, North and East, and giving them the best kind of treatment while on board.

☞ Our neat little Carrolton packet, Belle Quigley, will be down this morning, and go back at noon. Captain Cline is in command, and that is saying enough.—Go down in time, and send down your freight.

☞ The Grapeshot went out last evening to Pittsburg, with a very fair cargo. The John Tompkins, to Tennessee river, with a good load.

☞ We neglected, in our notice of the Aunt Letty, to say that she is a new boat, just built at Pittsburg, and now out on her first trip.

☞ The Bridge City went over to Jeffersonville last evening to take on a lot of freight, and will be back at the city wharf this morning to receive the balance of her load, which will be a large one, and leave this evening for Wheeling.

THANKS.—Mr. Moody, of the fast steamer Southerner, has our thanks for full river favors, manifest, memorandum, and St. Louis papers of the 20th. The Southerner is the regular Friday packet.

SHIP BUILDING IN MEDFORD, MASS.—Five hundred and thirteen vessels have been built in Medford, between the years 1800 and 1855, with an aggregate of 230,000 tons, and at a cost, according to the estimate of $45 per ton, of $10,442,270. The greatest number constructed in any one yard is 88, and in any single year 30. That year was 1845.

INTERESTING TO RIVER MEN.—We take the following from the Washington Union:

DELIVERY OF LETTERS AND PACKAGES.—The masters of steamboats, under contract with the department, are required to deliver into the post offices, (or to the local agent of the department, if there be any,) at the places at which they arrive, all letters received by them, or by any person employed in their boats at any point along the route. Masters and managers of all other steamboats are required by law, under a penalty of thirty dollars, to deliver all letters brought by them, or within their care or power, addressed to, or destined for, the places at which they arrive, to the postmasters, except letters relating to some part of the cargo. Postage is charged on all letters not addressed to persons in whom the cargo, or any part of it, is consigned.

All letters conveyed by steamboats, packets, or other vessels, relating to the cargo, are required to be left unsealed. If sealed, they must be delivered to the post office to be charged with postage. If on being opened in the presence of the postmaster, they are found to relate to the cargo, the postage may be remitted. The law relating to this subject is often violated. Postmasters are required to prosecute for the penalty in all cases where they can obtain testimony.

[From the Evening Edition.]

PITTSBURG, August 22—M.

There are 4 feet 6 inches water in the channel and falling. The weather is cloudy, with rain this morning.

NEW ORLEANS, August 22—M.

The Yorktown leaves to-day.

ANOTHER BOATMAN GONE.—Captain Elijah Chaddick, one of the oldest pilots in the Western country, died in this city yesterday, aged 55 years. His was a life of activity and adventure. We refer our readers to the notice of his death in another column.

☞ The Montauk arrived at St. Louis Saturday from the Upper Mississippi in a damaged condition. On the 1st inst., while lying at Dubuque, she encountered a storm, which tore off all the starboard side of her cabin, sent her chimneys overboard, and otherwise damaged her. Some of the fragment of the chimneys were fixed up, and she was enabled to reach that city in a crippled condition. She will be repaired there.

ARRIVAL OF THE PACIFIC.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.

The Pacific arrived at her berth at 6 o'clock, having come up without any previous announcement in consequence of the dense fog. This defeated the intended public reception of M'lle Rachael. She brings European dates to the 11th inst.

The Havre steamship Arago arrived off Southampton on the evening of the 10th.

Omar Pacha has been appointed to command the Turkish troops in Asia.

The siege of Kars continues without any definite result.

Berdiarisk has been again bombarded.

It is reported in Paris that Revel had been successfully bombarded, but the truth probably is that the fleet is assembling in the Baltic for the supposed immediate attack upon Helsingfors.

The French Government publishes an inflated account of a discovered legitimist conspiracy to excite an insurrection in Spain, and further the ends of Russia.

It is definitely stated, but still seems doutful that Spain will supply 25,000 troops to be in the pay of the allies.

Portugal, it is also said, will furnish 10,000 troops.

The Italian General, Repo, is dead.

M'lle Rachael, the distinguished Tragedienne, is among the passengers by the Pacific.

ADDITIONAL BY THE PACIFIC.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.

The following was telegraphed from London to our Liverpool agent, just as the steamer left:

LONDON, Saturday A. M.—11th.

The Invalide do Russe of August 2d, publishes the Russian General's report of the events before Kustz, on the 11th ult., not so late by three days as the letters to Lapadegge, and two days earlier than the contemplated attack upon the town.

Gen. Mouvriekoff pretends to be besieging the town, but he appears to be looking about the city, picking up odd oxen and horses, while waiting to learn something of advantage.

Kars is not invested.

The Journal of St. Petersburg says that on July 10th a gun boat, carrying the British flag, appeared before Otchakoff, and three a number of shells into the Russian batteries.

Otchakoff commands, together with Kithbaum, the strait by which the Dneiper communicates with the Black Sea, and must be passed on the way to Nichaloff and Kherson.

The boat referred to was probably taking soundings.

The Russian official contains an account of a third bombardment of Kenitchiol, on the 5th, by three gun boats and two screw steamers.

The stores of straw near the shore were set on fire, and some horses burned.

Prince Lavanoff, who was in command, withdrew his troops, in ordor to avoid loss of life.

The Journal de St. Petersburg says: Gentline was exposed, almost defenceless, to a third bombardment.

The Allies, after destroying with impunity farmer's and fishermen's huts on the shore, drew near the city, which was evacuated by the troops, and abandoned by the inhabitants. The Allies directed their artillery at the temple of God built in the place, and upon which they concentrated their fire. Towards 9 o'clock a shell which was thrown upon the church burst off the roof, and caused a fire from which the belfry alone escaped.

On July 20 the two steamers and two gun-boats keeping Genetchik in sight took to sea.

The Patrie gives private messages which have been received state that the Allies have operated with success against Revel. No dispatch, however, has been received confirming this.

The Austrian State Gazette states that advices have been received from Bucharest to the 18th; that the aga or common police magistrate of that city has been dismissed in consequence of complaints on the part of foreigners there, especially the Russian Consul General.

POLAND.—The Czar (?) of Cracow states that preparations for the new levy in Poland are carried on with great activity. The standard of height is lowered, and it is very difficult to obtain exemption. This is the fifth levy in that country with two years.

The Invalide de Rusae of 1st August, publishes Prince Gortchakoff's report of military operations from the 22d to the 28th of July. The Prince affirms that the whole of his artillery often silences the Allies batteries and drives their men from the trenches.

The Journal de Frankfort say, that the Austrian Government has remonstrated with the King of Naples, and blames him for the consequence which may issue from the errors of his Ministry.

LONDON, 10 o'clock, P. M.—The English funds to-day show increased firmness, and a rise of ⅝ per cent, owing to the favorable weather.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.

About noon to-day, a gravel train of platform cars while backing up from Fordham to Williamsbride, ran over an ox, throwing five cars off the track, making a complete wreck of them. Two men killed, and three others so injured that they cannot recover.

The Catholic priests from St. John's College at Fordham, were in attendance on the sufferers.

NEW YORK, August 22.

The steamship Baltic sailed at noon, with 125 passengers and $365,000 in specie.

PHILADELPHIA, August 22.

The laborers in the navy-yard have resolved to contribute one day's pay for the relief of the Norfolk sufferers.

BOSTON, August 22.

The funeral of Abbott Lawrence took place at 12 o'clock, at the Brattle Square Church. Rev. S. K. Lathrop, the pastor, officiated. The church was filled long before 12 o'clock, and before one the square and streets were filled by immense throngs of citizens. The procession embraced, besides the relatives of the family, the Governor and his council, officers of the Howard Mechanics' Association, the Young Men's Association Union, the Mayor of the city, the Common Council, and several military and civic bodies. The first regiment of light infantry formed the escort. The body was conveyed to Mount Auburn. All the principal business houses were closed.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 22.

The fever is about the same as last week, and will probably continue with little abatement thro' a portion or all of September.

CINCINNATI, August 22.

There was a Republican mass meeting here last night. Addresses were made by S. P. Chase, L. D. Campbell, and Capt. Ford. Chase denied his election to the Senate by an arrangement giving two democratic members seats as State representatives for their votes. He denies being a disunionist. No expression, sentence, or letter, ever came from him not loyal to the Union. No sympathy with Garrison, nor the nullifiers of the South. Thinks slavery a question precipitated by the Kansas bill. Paramount and imminent not to interfere with slavery where it exists, but opposed its extension into new territories. But it must not interfere with us. Retrenchment is needed, and has always favored internal improvements—severe on the Administration for favoring Southern interests in this particular. The meeting was orderly and enthusiastic. Three or four thousand were present.
